

Table 1: Global crisis → strategic action,Table 2: Strategic impact → global outcome,Table 3+: Track key areas

Ref	When the World faces...	The Intervention
A	Border friction or diplomatic tension	Conflict Resolution & Mediation
B	Disinformation or reactive policymaking	Transparency & Information Integrity
C	Economic volatility or supply chain gaps	Fiscal & Resource Management
D	Global recessions or health pandemics	Endurance & Collective Resilience
E	Isolationism or lack of international aid	Multilateralism & Trust-Building
F	Moral erosion or loss of international law	Reconnection to Shared Values
G	Political stagnation or social unrest	Institutional Innovation & Voice
H	Radicalisation or polarised ideologies	Social Cohesion & Depolarisation
I	Rapid tech shifts or uncertain global paths	Ethical Alignment & Foresight
J	Resource depletion or energy crises	Sustainability & Rejuvenation
K	Systemic inertia or power vacuums	Strategic Initiative & Responsibility
L	Wanting to leave a mark or global legacy	Altruism & Soft Power Leadership

Ref	Why it Helps	The Outcome
A	Creates physical safety for citizens	Harmony and reduced international stress
B	Reduces reactionary panic and restores trust	Peace and control
C	Focuses capital on essential infrastructure	Clarity and easing of economic overwhelm
D	Builds the "muscle" to survive future setbacks	Hope and lessened global suffering
E	Re-integrates nations into the global community	Connection and shared burden-sharing
F	Grounds the global order in a "rules-based" peace	Stability and reduced ideological conflict
G	Reclaims civic engagement and progress	Experience excitement and fulfilment
H	Heals social fractures and prevents extremism	Replace distress with calm; emotional relief
I	Ensures tech progress serves humanity	Alignment and reduced systemic uncertainty
J	Ensures longterm survival of the planet	Vitality and reduced resource exhaustion
K	Creates momentum to solve "unsolvable" issues	Empowerment through purposeful action
L	Turns national growth into global service	Legacy through meaningful difference

Example

Today's global news is dominated by geopolitical tension and leadership manoeuvring

Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday	